Wednesday - The early arrival folks played Dominoes in the clubhouse Tuesday evening. By Wednesday the rest of the rally attendees were set up and ready for meet and greet. The Rally Agenda was distributed and we all enjoyed visiting over yummy cookies. That evening the gamers played dominoes; fast trackers were resting up after traveling. We all learned a lesson about taking flashlights as it was really dark at the campground.

Thursday - The campground provided a tasty pancake and sausage breakfast for our group, after which (in keeping with true campers) we immediately started planning our next meal !! We all decided to go to Rosemary and Thyme which is a very nice restaurant in an Americus historic hotel. One of our hosts called for reservations and we were all able to go and enjoy the evening. The hotel was beautiful and full of antiques; the food was excellent.

Friday - We all loaded up in car pools and enjoyed the local countryside on our trip to Yoder's restaurant. They are famous in the area – a Mennonite community restaurant known for fresh food and tasty desserts, Everyone enjoyed their meal and the fellowship.

Friday Continued - After lunch the carpools went various directions. One carload visited the Andersonville prison museum; another visited the Crossroads train station where a train indeed did come by; and another carload visited the historic town of Andersonville. Our last carload came back to camp for a midafternoon snooze before our ice cream social. They'd bought TWO Mennonite yummy cakes to go with the ice cream. We were all ready for our sweet treats by 6 pm. That night we all hooked up at Jack White's camper for a visit. Campfires were a challenge for everyone this rally but we all adjusted and our evenings were full of laughter and visiting.

Saturday - George Underwood, Doug Wright, and Johnny Dunaway grilled burgers and dogs to go with all the yummy sides provided for our Saturday night cookout. A good time with tons of great food.

Sunday, Ethel C. provided our devotional as we enjoyed muffins provided by hosts. We bid each other farewell. A fun Rally!
